Rob Dugger

Rob Dugger has had a long and varied career in business and public service and is an expert on government policy assessment and the effects of policy on domestic and global markets and financial institutions. He is the founder and managing partner of Hanover Investment Group, a firm specializing in helping business and government clients navigate significant changes in fiscal conditions.

Rob is deeply concerned about U.S. workforce competitiveness, environmental conservation, and sound economic analysis. To help assure U.S. workforce quality, Rob co-founded the Partnership for America's Economic Success, an organization dedicated to increasing business awareness and support for investing early in the lives of children. www.PartnershipforSuccess.org He is a Trustee of the Committee for Economic Development, a board member of the Virginia Early Childhood Foundation and chairman of the Alexandria/Arlington Smart Beginnings Leadership Council.

Rob is also an active businessman involved in water exploration and development, media technology, medical record keeping, bank restructuring, pharmaceutical delivery, and ecotourism ventures, and is a member of the Alexandria Virginia Chamber of Commerce.

Prior to Tudor, Rob served as Policy Director at the American Bankers Association, where he facilitated a panel of bank officials in developing a plan that became the RTC and the solution to the U.S. Savings & Loan problem. Rob began his career at the Federal Reserve Board of Governors in the early 1970s and served as a senior staff member of both the House Financial Services Committee and the Senate Banking Committee in the 1980s.
