

REBECCA EVANS

Director

Small Business Development Center

Housed in the St. Joseph Area Chamber of Commerce, the Small Business Development Center (SBDC) is available to assist individuals and businesses with issues involving business start-up, expansion, purchase, sale, marketing, financial analysis, and almost any other issue that presents itself to current or potential small business owners.

As Director of the SBDC, located in the offices of the St. Joseph Area Chamber of Commerce, Rebecca Evans provides free management assistance and guidance to current and prospective small business owners.

Before joining the Chamber in 2007, Ms. Evans was employed as a Support Staff Supervisor in the healthcare industry for several years. Ms. Evans has extensive experience in starting and operating two small businesses that currently serve northwest Missouri, Kansas City, Columbia and Omaha, Nebraska.

Ms. Evans serves on the Great Northwest Day Steering Committee and is an active member of the Bessie Ellison Parent Teacher Association. She is also a member of the Better Business Bureau and the St. Joseph Area Chamber of Commerce.

Ms. Evans is a graduate, magna cum laude, from Louisiana Tech University with a Bachelor of Science degree. She received her Master of Science degree in Administrative Studies through MSU at Springfield.
