

Small Business Technology Series

Join us for one or more of these free educational sessions at the Chamber.

Network Security & Data Protection

Presenters: Larry Hedin, Heartland Technology Solutions Kevin Schmutzler & Dan Schmitz, SonicWall

Even the smallest organization could have millions of dollars in assets throughout its system. Few people know all the ways those assets can be compromised. Just installing a firewall and a daily backup of your data isn't going to cut it. Don't miss this informative event and the opportunity to learn exactly how you can guarantee the safety and security of your company's valuable information.

11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., Tuesday, June 14 -- Lunch provided.

How to Build a Website for Your Business

Presenter: Jamie Brewer, Triggerfish Corporation

You don't have a website? Your competition does. Let us bring you up to speed by showing you how to set up your own WordPress account and go through the steps to add copy, pics, video, and features. When complete, you will be able to build your own basic, but professional looking, website.

11 a.m. to 1 p.m., Wednesday, June 22 --
Lunch provided.

FREE -- RSVP to (816) 232-4461 or redmond@saintjoseph.com at least two days before event is required. Limited seating. First come, first served with RSVPs.
